WHAT'S HOT

1 / RAISING CANE

Traditional canework gets a modern twist with 22 22 Edition Design's C1715 line of outdoor furniture. Made from a single piece of laser-cut metal that is woven and welded, the chair, shown, measures 17.5" w. x 18" d. x 35" h. and costs $575. From left, Blue, Grey, and White are among a wide range of powder-coated colors. 864-346-2188; promotemoderndesign.com

2 / GEOMETRY LESSONS

Jayson Home adds a touch of glamour to the dramatic intertwining stainless steel triangles of its Lansing dining table with a shimmering gold finish. The table, with a round glass top, measures 59" dia. x 29.5" h. and costs $2,695. 800-472-1885; jaysonhome.com

3 / SQUARE DEAL

Working with a cooperative of Indian spinners and weavers, fashion designer Steven Alan has brought his eye for updated preppy style to a line of cotton bedding for West Elm. Blue Lagoon, one of three plaid patterns, comes in full/queen and king sizes. From top, a standard sham is $34, and a full/queen duvet costs $169. 888-922-4119; westelm.com

4 / LIGHT WORK

With its New Old table lamp, Taiwan-based Kimu Design riffs on the silhouettes of antique lanterns using modern materials—metal frame, aluminum lampshade, and paper globe. It comes in two sizes: Plump, left, measures 16" w. x 18" h., while Tall measures 12" w. x 20.5" h. Each uses a low-wattage LED bulb and costs $380. 415-776-2100; zincdetails.com

5 / PURPLE HAZE

Sleek aluminum legs in a bronze finish give an updated edge to the clean midcentury-inspired styling of the Larsen furniture line from Italian firm Verzelloni. The 85" l. x 39.5" d. x 31" h. sofa can be upholstered in a range of fabrics, leathers, or c.o.m.; shown covered in Connor, a cotton blend, it costs $7,430. Coordinating armchairs, ottomans, and sectionals are also available. 917-237-0123; propertyfurniture.com
